HOUSE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION, 1921

FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TUESDAY, December 6, 1921.

Under a call of his Excellency, Governor Cameron Morrison, by virtue of the power vested in him to that effect by the Constitution of the State, the House of Representatives met in its hall this day at 11 o'clock a. m., and is called to order by Mr. Speaker Grier.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Bruner, of Raleigh.

The roll of members is ordered called and the following answer to their names: Mr. Speaker, Messrs. Barnes of Hertford, Barnes of Johnston, Barnhill, Bell, Bellamy, Bennett, Bowie, Brown, Bunch, Burt, Butt, Byrd, Christopher, Clark, Cline, Coffey, Coleman, Connor, Cooke, Cooper, Coughenour, Cowles, Cox, Crisp, Darden, Dawson, Dees, Doughton, Ensley, Everett of Durham, Everett of Richmond, Exum, Fountain, Fuller, Gaston, Gatling, Gibbs, Glover, Gosney, Grady, Graham of Graham, Grant, Hall, Henderson, Hendricks, Hicks, Hill, Holderby, Huneycutt, Jenkins, Johnson of Currituck, Johnston of Pender, Jones, Kennedy, King, Lane, Leach, Lee, Limerick, Linney, McArthur, McBee, McGee, McSwain, Maguire, Martin, Matthews of Bertie, Matthews of Mecklenburg, Monroe, Moore, Morrison, Murphy, Neal, Owen, Parham, Pass, Person, Pharr, Propst, Quickel, Ridings, Rodgers, Ross, Shaw, Smith of Brunswick, Smith of Pitt, Spence, Swain, Templeton, Townsend, Tucker, Uzzell, Walker, Walton, Ward, Whitaker of Jones, White, Williams, Williamson, Woltz, Young.

A quorum being present, the proclamation of the Governor convening the extraordinary session is read, as follows:

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Believing that an extraordinary occasion for a special session of the General Assembly, such as is referred to in Article III of section 9, of the Constitution of our State, has arisen and now exists, as hereinafter set forth; and my own belief being strengthened by the advice of the Council of State, duly given me in a resolution adopted by the Council at a meeting on the 11th day of October, 1921;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CAMERON MORRISON, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby issue this proclamation, calling your honorable body to meet in extraordinary session on Tuesday, December 6th, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the State Capitol at Raleigh, and I respectfully request that the senators and members of the House of Representatives assemble in their respective halls on the day and hour mentioned, for the purpose of meeting the emergencies which have arisen by reason of the fact:

That the State levy of thirteen cents on the one hundred dollars on property in the year 1920 proved inadequate to provide a sufficient State school fund to pay for three months of the school term in the various counties, as the law for the year 1920 obligated the State to do, in order that the common schools of the State might be run for the six months term required by the Constitution, thereby creating a deficit of about $7,000,000, which, under existing law, cannot be provided for either by taxation or the exercise of the credit of the State;

And for the Further Reason: That the Municipal Finance Act, enacted by your honorable body at your regular session in 1921, was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State, whereby many of the towns and cities of the State have been wholly unable, under existing laws, to meet such current expenses as they deemed wise, or to market securities which they deemed necessary for the proper administration of their governments.

My judgment is that the difficulties referred to cannot be met through any power in the executive officers of your State, and being duly authorized by the advice of the Council of State, I make this proclamation in order that you may assemble and enact such legislation as you may think expedient and necessary to relieve the situations referred to, and for such other purposes as may in your judgment merit your attention.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done in the city of Raleigh, this the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one, and in the one hundred and forty-sixth year of our American Independence. (Signed) Cameron Morrison,

Governor.

By the Governor:

Wm. H. Richardson,

Private Secretary.

The following gentlemen approach the Bar of the House and present their certificates of election to fill vacancies occasioned by resignation or otherwise and take their oaths of office administered by Mr. Speaker Grier.

Mr. Harding of Yadkin, and Mr. Whitaker of Guilford, who succeed Mr. Bryant of Yadkin, and Mr. Donnell of Guilford, respectively, the new members are assigned seats.

It further appears to the House of Representatives that Representative Clement of Buncombe has intermarried with a Mr. Stafford since the adjournment of the regular session of the General Assembly. It is ordered that the name Clement be stricken from the roll and the name Stafford be used in the records of the House, as the representative from Buncombe County, during the present extraordinary session, and the Principal Clerk is hereby directed to substitute the name Stafford for Clement, wherever necessary.

IN MEMORIAM

Mr. Glover presents the following resolution of respect, which is adopted by a rising vote:

A RESOLUTION OF RESPECT RELATING TO THE DEATH OF HONORABLE MAHLOW BOLTON

Be it Resolved by the House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. This House has heard with sorrow of the death of our former associate, Hon. Mahlow Bolton of the county of Northampton; that in his death the State has suffered a distinct loss, and this Assembly, in which he established himself as a man of parts, feels deeply his absence.

SEC. 2. That in the discharge of the duties as a legislator, he was brave, fearless, conscientious and capable.

SEC. 3. That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and the Chief Clerk is hereby instructed to send a copy of the same to his family.

Petitions are presented and referred to appropriate committees.

A message is ordered sent to the Senate that the House is now ready to receive any communication it may see fit to make.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from the Governor, and ordered spread upon the Journal of the House.

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

The necessity for my calling your honorable body in extraordinary session is set forth in the call, and I most respectfully invite your consideration of the two matters therein specifically referred to.

Under the Constitution, you have the undoubted right to proceed to act upon any other matter which, in your opinion, merits your attention.

I do not deem it my duty to make any recommendations to you, other than to ask that you take such action upon the two matters mentioned in the proclamation calling you together, as you deem wise.

The great program which you provided for in your regular session, I hope, is being administered to your satisfaction. I am well pleased at the splendid service being rendered by the various boards, commissions and other executive agencies charged with the duty of working out your great and patriotic designs.

With assurance of great respect, and cordial good will for the entire membership of your honorable body, I am,

Most respectfully yours,

CAMERON MORRISON,

December 6, 1921. Governor of North Carolina.

SENATE JOURNAL

EXTRA SESSION, 1921

FIRST DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, December 6, 1921.

Pursuant to a call of his Excellency, Governor Cameron Morrison, hereinafter recorded, the Senate of the General Assembly convenes in extraordinary session in its chamber in the city of Raleigh, this day at 11 o'clock a. m., and is called to order by Hon. W. B. Cooper, Lieutenant-Governor and President of the Senate.

Prayer is offered by Rev. W. McC. White, of the First Presbyterian Church, of Raleigh.

The roll of the Senators is called, and the following Senators answer to their names:

Senators Blue, Brassfield, Brown, Bumgarner, Burgwin of New Hanover, Burgwyn of Northampton, Byrd, Cameron, DeLaney, Dewar, Dunlap, Erwin, Gallert, Griffin, Hargett, Hartsell, Jones of Edgecombe, Jones of Stokes, Kinsland, Lambeth, Long of Alamance, Long of Halifax, McCoin, McCulloch, McGougan, McKinne, Mendenhall, Oates, Outlaw, Reinhardt, Sams, Scott, Stubbs, Swain, Taylor, Varser, Walker, Williams, Winborne, Woodson—40.

A quorum of the Senators being present, the proclamation of the Governor convening the General Assembly in extraordinary session is read as follows:

CONVENING THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN EXTRA SESSION ON DECEMBER 6, 1921

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
RALEIGH

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

Believing that an extraordinary occasion for a special session of the General Assembly, such as is referred to in Article III, of section 9, of the Constitution of our State, has arisen and now exists, as hereinafter set forth; and my own belief being strengthened by the advice of the Council of State, duly given me in a resolution adopted by the Council at a meeting on the 11th day of October, 1921:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CAMERON MORRISON, Governor of North Carolina, do hereby issue this proclamation, calling your honorable body to meet in extraordinary session on Tuesday, December 6, at 11 o'clock a. m., in the State Capitol at Raleigh, and I respectfully request that the Senators and members of the House of Representatives assemble in their respective halls on the day and hour mentioned, for the purpose of meeting the emergencies which have arisen by reason of the fact:

That the State levy of thirteen cents on the one hundred dollars on property in the year 1920 proved inadequate to provide a sufficient State school fund to pay for three months of the school term in the various counties, as the law for the year 1920 obligated the State to do, in order that the common schools of the State might be run for the six months terms required by the Constitution, thereby creating a deficit of about $700,000, which, under existing law, cannot be provided for either by taxation or the exercise of the credit of the State;

And for the Further Reason: That the Municipal Finance Act enacted by your honorable body at your regular session in 1921, was declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of the State, whereby many of the towns and cities of the State have been wholly unable, under existing laws, to meet such current expenses as they deemed wise, or to market securities which they deemed necessary for the proper administration of their governments.

My judgment is that the difficulties referred to cannot be met through any power in the executive officers of your State, and being duly authorized by the advice of the Council of State, I make this proclamation in order that you may assemble and enact such legislation as you may think expedient and necessary to relieve the situation referred to, and for such other purposes as may in your judgment merit your attention.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed. Done in the city of Raleigh, this the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and in the one hundred and forty-sixth year of our American independence.

Cameron Morrison,
Governor.

W. H. Richardson,
Private Secretary.

Senator-elect Mark Squires, elected to succeed Senator J. Edgar Kanipe, resigned, of the Thirty-third Senatorial District, and Senator-elect Walter L. Parsons, elected to succeed Senator M. W. Nash, resigned of the Twenty-first Senatorial District, both being present and filing with the Clerk of the Senate their respective certificates of election, duly authenticated, are called before the bar of the Senate, and the oath of office administered to them by Associate Justice W. P. Stacy, of the Supreme Court.

The President of the Senate assigns Senator Parsons to the following committees, to wit:

MR. PRESIDENT: It is ordered that a message be sent to the Senate informing that honorable body that the House is organized and ready to receive any communications it may see fit to send.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message is received from his Excellency, the Governor:

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of North Carolina:

The necessity for my calling your honorable body in extraordinary session is set forth in the call, and I most respectfully invite your consideration of the two matters therein specifically referred to.

Under the Constitution, you have the undoubted right to proceed to act upon any other matter which, in your opinion, merits your attention.

I do not deem it my duty to make any recommendations to you other than to ask that you take such action upon the two matters mentioned in the proclamation calling you together as you deem wise.

The great program which you provided for in your regular session, I hope, is being administered to your satisfaction. I am well pleased at the splendid service being rendered by the various boards, commissions and other executive agencies charged with the duty of working out your great and patriotic designs.

With assurances of great respect, and cordial good will for the entire membership of your honorable body, I am,

Most respectfully yours,

The following communications from the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and his associates, relative to the constitutionality of S. B. 395, H. B. 59, A bill to amend and reënact the Municipal Finance Act, being sections 2918 to 2969, Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina, is sent forward by Senator Long of Halifax, and upon motion of Senator Long of Alamance, is ordered spread upon the Senate Journal in full.

The Honorable, The Senate of North Carolina:

In response to the inquiry of your honorable body as to the opinion of the several members of this Court as to the constitutionality of a bill now pending before you to authorize the issue of bonds by the municipalities of the State, it appeared to us in conference with the committee of the Senate that said bill was materially amended on its passage through the House, especially by increasing the life of the bonds proposed to be issued from fifteen to thirty years.

In Glenn v. Wray, 126 N. C., at p. 733, it is said: "If the amendment were in a material matter, it would be necessary that the amended bill should be read over again three times in each House, with a yea and nay vote on the second and third readings entered on the Journal. It is the bill in its final shape, not in another and different form, which requires these preliminaries to its validity," i. e., the three readings on three several days in each House, and the entry of the ayes and noes on the second and third reading in each House.

This matter is not specifically referred to in your written communication, but I take it that the object of your resolution was to ascertain the constitutionality of the pending bill should it pass, in its present shape, the second and third readings in your body. Candor compels me to say that under the ruling in Glenn v. Wray, which has been more than a dozen times affirmed by this Court, the bill as passed by you under the present circumstances, would be unconstitutional, and the bonds issed thereunder void, unless all previous decisions on the subject are to be overruled and set aside. This renders it unnecessary for me to express any opinion on any mere detail in the bill.

Most respectfully,

(Signed) WALTER CLARK,
Chief Justice.

Raleigh, North Carolina, December 15, 1921.

To the Honorable, the Senate of North Carolina:

Responding to the inquiry presented at the instance of your honorable body, we are of opinion that the mere omission of Madison County from certain provisions will not of itself invalidate the act, if properly passed by both Houses, as required by the Constitution.

P. D. WALKER,
Associate Justice.
W. A. HOKE,
Associate Justice.
W. P. STACY,
Associate Justice.
W. J. ADAMS,
Associate Justice.

Upon motion of Senator Varser, S. B. 395, H. B. 59, A bill to amend and reënact the Municipal Finance Act, being sections 2918 to 2969, Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina, is placed upon its second reading.

The amendment offered by the Senate committee fails of adoption.

The bill passes second reading, ayes 43, noes 1, as follows:

Those voting in the affirmative are: Senators Blue, Brassfield, Bumgarner, Burgwin of New Hanover, Byrd, Cameron, Carlton, Cox, DeLaney, Dewar, Dunlap, Erwin, Gallert, Griffin, Hamilton, Hargett, Hartsell, Jones of Edgecombe, Jones of Stokes, Kinsland, Lambeth, Long of Alamance, Long of Halifax, McGougan, McKinne, Mendenhall, Oates, Outlaw, Parsons, Patton, Raynor, Reinhardt, Robinson, Sams, Scott, Squires, Stubbs, Swain, Taylor, Varser, Walker, Williams, Woodson—43.
